Emergencies happen. When they happen far from home, it's comforting to know there's a team of multilingual professionals standing by to help.

Your Travel Assistance Program offers a variety of 24-hour-a-day services in more than 200 countries and territories worldwide—and each one is just a phone call away.

Medical Services

- Assistance finding physicians, dentists and medical facilities.
- Monitoring during a medical emergency to determine if care is appropriate or if evacuation is required.
- When medically necessary, free transportation^{1,2} under medical supervision to a hospital/treatment facility or to your place of residence for treatment.
- Arrangement for your traveling companion's return home if previously made arrangements must change due to your medical emergency.
- When medically necessary, free transportation^{1,2} home for dependent children under the age of 26 who were traveling with you and are left unattended because of your hospitalization. A qualified escort will be arranged if necessary.
- Free round-trip transportation²—we arrange and pay for the most direct round-trip economy flight—for one immediate family member or friend to visit you if you're traveling alone and are likely to be hospitalized for seven consecutive days.
- Replacement of medication and eyeglasses.³
- In the event of death while traveling, all necessary government authorizations and a container appropriate for transportation will be arranged and paid for, as well as return home of the remains for burial.

Other Key Services

- Pre-trip information, including visa, passport, inoculation and immunization requirements; cultural information; embassy and consulate referrals; foreign exchange rates; and travel advisories.
- Emergency message relay to and from friends, relatives and business associates.
- If requested, new travel arrangements or change of airline, hotel and car rental reservations.
- An advance of up to $500 in emergency cash after satisfactory guarantee of reimbursement from you. You are responsible for any fees associated with the transfer or delivery of funds.
- Help locating and replacing lost or stolen luggage, documents and personal possessions.
- Help locating an attorney and advancement of bail bond, where permitted by law, after satisfactory guarantee of reimbursement from you. You are responsible for attorneys fees.
- Assistance with telephone interpretation in all major languages, or referral to an interpretation or translation service for written documents.

Who's eligible?

You, your spouse and your dependents under the age of 26 are eligible for all services provided by the Travel Assistance Program.

You can receive pre-trip information at any time

All other services take effect when you're on a trip 100 miles or more from home lasting 90 days or less.

When you call, please provide the following:

- 1 The address where you are staying
- 2 A phone number where we may reach you
- 3 Your employer's name

Travel Assistance is provided Generali Global Assistance ("GGA"). GGA will not evacuate or repatriate a covered member if a GGA-designated physician determines that such transport is not medically advisable or necessary or if the injury or illness can be treated locally.

GGA provides the services in all countries. However, GGA may determine that services cannot be provided in certain countries or locales because of situations such as war, natural disaster or political instability. GGA will attempt to assist the covered member consistent with the limitations presented by the prevailing situation in the area. GGA cannot be held responsible for failure to provide, or for delay in providing, services when such failure or delay is caused by conditions beyond its control, including but not limited to flight conditions, labor disturbance and strike, rebellion, riot, civil commotion, war or uprising, nuclear accidents, natural disaster, acts of God, or where rendering service is prohibited by local law or regulations.

Travel Assistance may not be available in all states. Generali Global Assistance is not affiliated with Symetra Life Insurance Company or any of its affiliates. For more information, visit us.generaliglobalassistance.com.

Product is not available in all U.S. states or any U.S. territory.
